ANIMAL PASSIONS (BLACK LACE) BY MARTINE MARQUAND PDF

Jo is too young and adventurous to submit to the stifling morality of the religious mission house where she's grown up. When her friend Emmi runs away to live in a pagan community in the depths of Yorkshire, Jo follows, keen to open her mind and body to the realities of the wild, untamed sex they practise there.

Michael is the charismatic leader of the group, who promises her the ultimate exploration of her newly awakened animals passions. As the summer heat intensifies, and preparations begin for their orgiastic midsummer festival, Jo is expected to play a central part in the cult's increasingly bizarre rites. Will she ever re-adjust to normal society?

"Animal Passions", A Revealing Title

By Irwin H. Moss

Jo wanders into a commune that smacks of a new-agey milieu we have traveled before. She (the author, Ms. Marquand) seemingly points us in familiar directions. She shapes the pyramids of sexual excitement in graphic terms succeeding I think at the level of intended arousal, but again deftly warns us there is more to be revealed.

Jo, and the other characters are lusty and prolific in their sexual couplings, and display the obligatory hetero-gay-voyeur/exhibitionism we have come to expect and receive from most Black Lace Books.

It is when Ms Marquand takes us to the next stage that she reveals her skills and knowledge and sensitivity to areas of human sexuality rarely read or discussed openly, although altogether quite well-known on the therapist's sofa. She craftily leads us to the inevitable, (on her terms) taking us to the now expected and desired end of animal passions.

This story is not for everyone, even hardened (no pun) readers of erotica. Still, we have been forewarned, and that stated, I would recommend the book to any adult reader.

An erotic novel not for everyone's tastes

By A Customer

I've read quite a few of the Black Lace novels, and I haven't been impressed by all of them. My personal tastes veer towards erotic encounters by mutual consent, not BDSM. I've always enjoyed erotic novels where the main character is attempting to explore new boundaries, so Animal Passions suits me fine.

The erotic passages at the end of the book are probably the most intense I've ever read. In some cases I think it crosses the line into bestiality, certainly not a topic I feel comfortable discussing much less reading about.

Despite these misgivings, the other erotic encounters are very vividly described, and are quite satisfying. The reason for taking away 1 star is because I'm waiting for Martine Marquand to write a sequel. A novel like this is just begging for a follow on!

Wild, pagan fantasy

By HannahB

One of the best Black Lace books I have read. We follow Jo's adventures as a sassy, sexy young woman who dreams of a cat-like abandoned alter ego. Her journeys take her to the wild side of fantasy in a cult who practise shape changing magic. What I loved were the wideranging characters - the sexy artist couple, the cute guys and girls at the cult and of course the leader Michael himself. A lot of this is dreamlike and full of the powers of nature and I guess the whole book is about our natural, animal passions. This goes beyond the usual cut-out, boring action between couples. If your fantasies go beyond the wilder limits to group, girl and girl and cross species you will want to buy this fast. I recommend.
