Review

"The path from a cruel life is a difficult road to travel. Aqua Regia is a novel following Enos Butler, a man who has to deal with the growing and troubled nature of his life to rise up through the ranks of the world in this no-holds-barred thriller that spares nothing on action adventure and everything else in its story. For those who like world traveling thrillers, Aqua Regia may be a choice and much recommended pick, not to be overlooked."--Midwest Book Review, March 2013

WOW! A fast moving crime thriller!

By Correna Wilson Pickens

Aqua Regia! Hold on to your coffee cup and get ready for a fast ride into high society. Do you trust your top government officials now? Well, you won't after reading Aqua Regia! Top government officials, department of human services personnel, law enforcement officials, and neighbors, that are seen taking their children to church on Sunday morning, are all involved in crimes such as abuse to foster children; selling some internationally as sex slaves. Some top officials black mailed cronies through high profile prostitution rings. Aqua Regia authors created an eloquent literary work by drawing the reader into the realm of life-like characters. Oh,yes! Beware! Watch out for witch doctors, zombies and voodoo!

Aqua Regia

Stimulating, dark story. Lots of sex, CDS, money and invasion of privacy. This is a whirlwind story traversing continents and delving into the darker recesses of humanity. There are some strange folks described in these pages. If you are looking for a feel-good story, pass this one by. On the other hand, if you want to notice your eyes widening at certain paragraphs, get it done.
