When Peter and Erin move into their new home in the Cheshire countryside, they had no idea that their new neighbours would introduce them to an exciting world of kink. Dominant Christina and panty-wearing cuckold Bryn seduce the young couple to embrace their fantasies and live a life containing female domination, cuckolding, male bisexuality and orgasm denial.

But as Erin seeks hot one night stands and Peter's attentions turned towards other men, how far will they go, especially with previous torments ready to rear their ugly head? Can Peter deal with the ultimate humiliation and become a total cuckold?

This book is full of heterosexual, homosexual and BDSM sex scenes and contains explicit imagery throughout. It is approximately 60,000 words in length.

Just Too Much

By Crosley Fan

When Peter and Erin move into a new home, they soon realize that their neighbors have an interesting marital relationship, in which the wife is dominant and the husband is submissive. What a coincidence! Peter and Erin have been moving in that direction themselves. Very quickly, Erin takes control of Peter full-time, puts Peter in panties, and begins to have sex with any man who crosses her path. Peter, for his part, embraces his submission, encourages his own cuckolding, and begins to explore more deeply his new-found bisexual urges. Stories's writing is clear but only scratches the surface of Peter's reactions to his new life--which, in truth, extends far beyond cuckolding and far beyond "beginners." As a result the novella becomes simply an accumulation of blow-by-blow (literally) accounts of who did what to whom. There is a wide variety of these, to be sure, but ultimately the book simply reaches beyond any sense of realism and believability.
