It's hard to understand why so many people hold on to painful and harmful memories and thoughts, which make them sick and do not serve them. I guess the only reason they do is that no one told them HOW to let go.

In this book I will show you in a few simple steps how to FREE yourself from all the self-minimizing, negative and self-destructive beliefs , which prevent you from living a healthy and prosperous life.

Marcus Freudenmann is the producer and director of the bestselling movie "CANCER is curable NOW" and the author of "Healing Cancer with Common Sense" His insights shared in this latest book "Emotional Intelligence as Medicine" are the culmination of years of research study and dedication to help those in need.

This book will shatter all your stagnant beliefs and self limiting illusions to set you free. It's truly a masterpiece. You can not argue the logic and the common sense demonstrated in this book. It's a must read for all those who have transcended the realm of illusion and are on the pathway of evolution. Daniel Culmanard

EQ Health.

I really bought this book after being a follower of Marcus Freudenmann. for some years he has been inspiring me to research all aspects of health. I am a health professional working with alternative therapies that have been intergrated into mainstream medicine. When you study holistic medicine you will, at some point, come to the subject of your mind and how healthy it is. This is something you can not avoid if you wish to get down to the nitty gritty.. I loved this book, because it's so very clear and obvious. it is a true facilitator for expanding your mind and in understanding how you work and how the environment works around you. You will learn about an idea that is very clearly set out something that is very tangible and easily applied to your life to enhance it. there were a few grammatical errors in the book, which is kind of a shame, because I could have proof read it for them.. :-)
