HUMAN COMMUNICATION: MOTIVATION, KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS, Second Edition, features the collaborative work of recognized experts in the fields of communication and offers a unified approach to the basic processes of human communication backed by skill assessment. Beginning with the premise that all forms of communication have the potential to be viewed as competent depending on the context or situation, the text helps readers develop a framework for choosing among communication messages that will allow them to act competently. The theoretically based and skills-oriented framework emphasizes the basic themes of motivation, knowledge and skills across interpersonal communication, electronically mediated communication, small group communication, public speaking, and-new to the Second Edition-mass communication to help students become competent communicators in their own lives.

Human Communication

By Esther A. Borbon

This book arrived exactly as it was described. It was in very good condition, and arrived within the week that I ordered it...so very fast shipping!

Very good book, very helpful and is a must for my communication class. Thanks!

Didn't Even Receive It

By Beverley S. Seabolt

I ordered this book in the beginning of January, expecting it to be delivered by the beginning of February, (this was also according to their shipping statement). It was the 7th of February and I still hadn't received my book. I submitted a claim to Amazon.com, and luckily they gave me my money back. I wouldn't trust this company period.
