Excellent training tool

By APAlovestoread

Very informative. The author has immense experience in nonprofit management. He is an experienced writer and professor, and has created a useful easy to read and well organized book that sheds new light on the concept and definition of the nonprofit sector. For a great companion text, check this out by the same author. The Nonprofit Handbook: Everything You Need to Know to Start and Run Your Nonprofit Organization (6th Edition)

Well ...

By Vickster

the love it aspect is because this book arrived as described and well on time for school. A book I would not buy were it not required - great for the lesson though.
