In My Want-Tos, a delightful children's picture book on manners, a little girl compares what she wants to do with what God wants her to do. Each page is its own lesson, leading the little girl to discover in simple, easy-to-understand ways why God's decisions are best.

By asking, "What's wrong with my want-tos?" children discover how God shows them the fair and just way to handle everyday situations, working through common themes such as teasing, fighting, bragging, and selfishness. Each "want-to" is accompanied by a Bible verse illustrating what God wants instead.

A great book for teaching manners and strong moral character, My Want-Tos is a must have for parents, grandparents, and teachers. Adults can easily refer to a particular lesson to discuss with their children the proper way to handle a difficult situation. My Want-Tos is destined to become a household or classroom favorite!
