5 Star rating for The Big E!

By Linda Cassell

Jarrad Jewett and Dee Wallace have written a book that clearly, concisely, and elegantly reminds us of our natural abilities to create exactly how and what we want our lives to be. With so many people bandying about the concept of "everything is energy," Wallace and Hewett demonstrate what this means and, in their words, how to "unleash the power of everyday wisdom." I vote this one 5 Stars!

Usual book on the LoA, nothing special

By FM

This book reminds you all the Low of Attraction principles, but gives you nothing special that you would not find in other books on the subject. Some interesting quotes:

"when you feel joyful, your E (your Energy) is vibrating with joyful frequencies; you actually become a joyful vibration"

"when you're in your joy, you're able to love yourself - and the world - even more, and as you focus on this joy and love, guess what? More is created"

"Choose to get off your butt...and go get what you want."

"Keep Focused on what you want. Eat it, drink it, sleep it, dream it..."

"No matter what you've done in your past, today is a fresh start."

"Today is the first day of the rest of my life!"

"know that whatever you wish to be, you will be."

"the only s that happens is the s we create."

"Dare to live the life you've always wanted."

"The Big E will give us everything we ask for without thinking we are selfish, unworthy, or even unappreciative - those are all labels spawned from guilt, and the Big E won't give us guilt unless we ASK for it"

"Be like a child and ask for every little thing you want!"

"Who are we really hurting by holding a grudge anyway?"

"Happiness is a choice."

"How many times have you gotten something in a way that you never would have expected?"

"looking is good when you're buying a car, but not when you are divinely inspired by an idea. Divine inspiration comes from a place that, oftentimes, our intellect just doesn't understand. Have a little faith!"

"Judging, fixing, and saving are all cages that we put ourselves in to help keep us from having to deal with our own issues."

"If it's your prejudice, heal it. If it's your fear, let it go. If it's your limiting belief, redefine it."

"Whenever we point the finger at someone or something else as a cause or excuse for our shortcomings, we are really giving away our creative power."

"not trying to get there usually gets us there faster - because instead of focusing on "there" we're focusing on here, and "here" is where we create everything."

"the best thing we can do for ourselves - ever - is simply to feel good and love ourselves."

"Wherever we are right now is perfect because from where we are now is arising the desire to create something else"

"We've just got to remember to know what we want and not let anything stop us."

"Nothing is so serious that it needs to wet our feathers and render us incapable of floating."

"Oftentimes, we wind up rejecting exactly what we've been asking for because we don't understand the delivery process or we judge the package."

"Love yourself enough to know that you deserve what you want."

"If you were trying to create a cake, you would not go to the grocery store and buy vegetables and steak. So why do you expect to become successful while holding the vibration of "I am a failure?"

"you might not be able to make peanut butter from poop, but you can buy some with all the money you'll save on fertilizer."

"If you must overcome, and you are the creator of your own reality, then you are both the conqueror and the conquered."

"Can we love ourselves enough to give ourselves everything we want?"

"Our job is to simply tell The Big E what we want and go on about our business being in joy and gratitude. ... Think of creation as ordering fast food. Do you order a Big Mac and the freak out wondering if you're actually going to get it?"

"our creation is delivered when we move out of the place of expecting, and into the place of knowing."

"what most of us are holding as "complex" is our inner struggle between "yes" and "no", and it's the struggle between the two that creates the resistance to creating exactly what we want."

"We're trying to create what we want, while holding the frequencies of both "I want it" and "I don't want it"."

"know that there is nothing we must change about ourselves in order to be loved"

"You must choose. ... If we don't choose, somebody else chooses for us..."

"don't go after it if it's not YOUR dream"

"If your goal is to count to ten, and you begin counting, are you going to stop at the number five and ask, "Why am I not to ten yet?" or are you going to continue counting, knowing that you are heading in the exact direction of accomplishment?"

"Out focus shifts from "This is so much fun", and "It would be so cool if..." to "Why isn't this working?" and "Where's my stuff?" When we shift our focus, we shift our outcome."

"Feeling great about your self is the perfect way to create more great things."

"If you get an idea, dig that mine until you get the gold."

"I want the quiet knowingness that all is working together for the highest good."

"It is easier to stay in joy around joyous people than it is stay in joy around people who hate joy."

"when we're in reaction, we move out of creation"

"when we judge someone else, we are energetically judging our Self"

"when you are loving yourself and what you do, you Want to take action!"

"worry is just a useless expense of energy."

"Judge not is best applied to self. Forgive all is best applied to self."
